THE ASSOCIATION AT WORK

What Each Committee is Doing

The Social Service Committee

Social service at Sweet Briar is not restricted to discussions in Sociology classes or to your own intentions to "do something really worth while" when you are out of college. Through the Young Women's Christian Association of Sweet Briar, you have a splendid opportunity to find the joy which comes from service, from the feeling that you have given a little of yourself to someone else.

There are two branches of social service work at Sweet Briar—chapel, and the meetings and classes for the waitresses. The waitresses do not get out of the dining-room in time for church or for the Sunday vesper services, and consequently, if it were not for the meetings held every Sunday night, there would be girls at Sweet Briar who would never have an opportunity to go to church whether they wanted to or not. For these same girls the association has organized a singing club, a basketball class, a dancing class, a sewing class, as well as classes in English, Mathematics, and Hygiene.

If you want your work to be fully appreciated, offer some of your time to the Chairman of the Social Service Committee, who is Blanche Davies.

The advantages that you have as a college student increase both your ability and your responsibility to help those less fortunate than yourself.

The Extension Committee

The Extension Committee is Social Service work spread out.

Before you leave for Sweet Briar look around and see if you have some children's books. If so, pack them up and send them to Rev. Thomas Lewis, Amherst, Va. This year the Sweet Briar girls have provided the Amherst children with a library and we need more books.

Equally important is the Indian Mission. This is a settlement back in the mountains, of several hundred people of very mixed blood and almost unbelievably few opportunities. The county supplies a teacher for six months of the year and the Episcopal Church in Amherst and the Sweet Briar Christian Association support her for the other six months. We also send clothes and provisions to the Mission and the Association gets up frequent hiking parties to go over and arrange entertainments for the children, carrying them toys and candy, and at Christmas, filling stockings for them. The girls take an especial interest in this branch of work and it has proved to be an instance of time well spent.

Besides this, magazines and provisions are sent to the county poorhouse where conditions are far worse than pitiable and where there is an ever-present need for assistance.

If you are willing to take your part in making people warm, well, and happy, there is a place on this committee open to you. Sarah Houston is chairman of this committee.

Religious Meetings

The Religious Meetings Committee arranges services which the waitresses attend. Other religious activities which are not planned by the college come under the work of this branch of the Y. W. C. A. One night a week a chapel service, arranged by the committee, is held. By entering into the spirit of these services, you can find both help and inspiration. Frances Powell, the chairman of the committee on Religious Meetings, will appreciate any suggestions which you can offer for making these services more interesting or more helpful.

The Membership Committee

The Y. W. C. A. wants members, not numbers! This ideal was expressed when Sweet Briar adopted the personal basis of membership. Formerly you could be a member of the Y. W. C. A. of Sweet Briar on any condition, but not a voting member unless you were a member of a church which belonged to the Federation of the Churches of Christ in America. At the National Convention in Cleveland, held in April, 1920, it was voted to adopt the personal basis of membership for the student associations. This basis is fully explained under Article III of the Constitution. Sweet Briar took the forward step along with other colleges in the United States.

It is believed that under this new order the girls will feel more keenly that they are the Association, and if the Y. W. C. A. succeeds, to them goes the credit, or if it fails, to them people will look for the reason.

It will be the pleasure of the Membership Committee to welcome you to Sweet Briar and to help you in every possible way. Marjorie Gubelman is the chairman of this committee.

The Social Committee

Through the efforts of the Social Committee, more girls are brought in touch with each other than through the work of any other branch of the Y. W. C. A. Its members help to meet the new girls and to make them feel at home at Sweet Briar. The Social Committee has charge of the reception given to the new girls at the beginning of the year. Each new girl will have an old girl as her student associate. Your student associate will be glad to help you in whatever way she can.

Marjorie Ris is the chairman of this committee, whose duty is to assign your student associate who will take you to the reception for the new girls.

The Publicity Committee

If you can draw, here is your opportunity to exercise your talent and to be useful. The Y. W. C. A. is always glad to have attractive posters. The committee needs everybody who can serve, and those who cannot make posters—please read them and heed them. There will be posters for Sunday evening meetings, activities, entertainments, and general information.

If you have any suggestions, give them to Alice Martin, the chairman.

The Finance Committee

The main business of the Finance Committee is the making out of a budget at the beginning of each year. This budget is an approximate estimate of the S. B. C. A. expenses for the year and it is up to the Finance Committee to raise this amount.

Helen Bean is chairman of the Finance Committee.

Business Organization

Crackers and fruit are sold in every dormitory for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. The money is used at the discretion of the Cabinet. The chairman of this committee, Serena Coe, will appreciate your help and co-operation in this branch of work.

BLUE RIDGE

The Students' Summer Conference

Away down in North Carolina on the side of a great mountain, perches Blue Ridge. The first view of it from the railway station at Black Mountain is inspiring and the inspiration is renewed at every turn. Perhaps the most wonderful thing about the place is the view fronting Robert E. Lee Hall, which is the nucleus of the conference life. Standing on the broad piazza, looking across the valley with its many roads winding in and out among the fields and forests, you see the blue outlines of a long, high range of mountains, rugged and majestic in their dignified beauty. It may be the atmosphere of the conference, it may be just imagination, but somehow God seems very real to you up there.

Each day is filled with interesting things. All morning there are Bible and Mission study classes, lectures and meetings for the discussions of Y. W. work. At these meetings you find girls from colleges all over the South, and you learn a great deal about the management and business of other student Y. W. C. A.'s. In the afternoon there are hiking, swimming, tennis, and other sports. Parties climb Hightop to watch the sun set over the blue, eternal hills. Dinner is at six o'clock and each delegation gathers at its own table in the refectory. What an appetite that mountain air gives you and how good the food is! During the meal, the different colleges serenade each other, Blue Ridge, and the world in general, with all kinds of college and conference songs. Later there are stunts, movies, lectures, or step-singing out in front of Robert E. Lee Hall. Last of all are the delegation meetings, just before "taps" when the members of each delegation discuss together the things that have happened during the day.

The finest thing you can bring with you from the conference is the "Blue Ridge spirit." This may be defined as "happy helpfulness" for everyone is eager to help you in any possible way, and everyone is happy. There you are prouder than ever of being a Christian; it seems a thing to be proud of, to try to live up to more than ever before. You might well put your whole life into Blue Ridge and not take half from it of what is there for you. Blue Ridge is one of the "high places" of our country, and if you doubt this, just ask anyone who has been there.

When possible the Y. W. C. A. of Sweet Briar sends two girls every year to the conference, but any girl in college who is interested may go and she is assured of lasting benefit.

POLICY OF THE Y. W. C. A. OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

For 1932-1933

Motto: "Whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God."—I Cor. 10:31.

We, as a Cabinet, realize that our supreme strength lies in the reality to us of Christ as a Friend. Therefore, we determine to make Him our Friend, to help other girls feel Him as their Friend and then work together for His honor and glory.

The Cabinet believes that the greatest need of our college is a deeper thoughtfulness on the part of each girl in college. This thought would result in a true estimate of the relative values of things, a balanced life which puts the right emphasis on the different phases of college life and develops true college spirit. To this end we will dare to stand for:

First—Loyal and unflinching support of the Associations in college, strict obedience to their regulations, and regular attendance at their meetings.

Second—Interested respect and response to the regulations of the Student Executive Department.

Inasmuch as we are the leaders in the spiritual life of our college community we determine:

To observe Sunday with due reverence for the Lord's Day.

To set a proper standard of conduct in chapel exercises.

To bring out and train girls in real spiritual leadership, by watching carefully for powers of leadership in girls and by giving these girls such work to do as shall develop and consecrate these powers.

Inasmuch as we realize the Association is dependent not only upon the spiritual quality of the leaders but also upon their practical efficiency, we resolve:

To be regular and punctual in attendance upon the weekly meetings of the Cabinet and to regard these meetings as previous engagements.

To regard Cabinet meetings as confidential meetings, where we may freely discuss any question.

To study the Association Handbook.

As individuals we pledge ourselves:

To keep strict watch over ourselves in all our activities and relationships.

To know as many girls in college as possible, and to be ready and willing to give each girl the best that is in us.

All the above resolutions, howsoever difficult, we will carry out to the very best of our ability.

“Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable and perfect will of God.”—Rom. 12:2.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

You are the Y. W. C. A. of Sweet Briar. If the Association succeeds, it is you who make it do so; if it fails, it is because you have not taken your part. The Association, so large in its possibilities, so influential in its scope, so vital and necessary to the college life, must not fail. Therefore, be an active member. Show your interest, give your support, co-operate for the accomplishment of its aims. Be conscious of your membership and try to make others feel a similar consciousness and you and your Association will both grow broader and will be more worth while.

Show your interest by an endeavor to attend every meeting regularly, and DO NOT COME ALONE. To try to interest others is the surest way to interest one's self.

If you have any criticisms of the Association, make them to us and not about us. Criticisms prompted by sincere interest may be a source of real improvement and progress in our work.

Carry the Association spirit of helpfulness and unselfishness with you throughout the week—to your tables, your classes, your roommates, and your play. It is not meant to be kept for Sunday!

Deficiency in academic work is defined as the failure to maintain a credit ratio of 1.0 as defined in the Dean's office.

AGREEMENT CONCERNING THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT OF SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE

The Student Petition (October 17, 1906)

The Students of Sweet Briar College, believing that there is dignity and honor in student government, desire individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic.

We, therefore, petition the President and Faculty for legislative and executive control in certain matters. We ask:

I—Right to control quiet and order in all places about the buildings and campus that are not under the immediate control of a member of the Faculty.

II—Permission, with the advice and approval of the Faculty, to extend our power as occasion arises and we prove worthy to be vested with greater power and authority.

III—Permission to make such additions to the above as we may feel are necessary, with the consent and approval of the President and Faculty.

The Reply of the Faculty

(October 20, 1906)

The Faculty of Sweet Briar College endorses most cordially the desire of the student body to assume responsibility for the conduct of individual students in non-academic matters. Therefore, the Faculty accords permission to frame a constitution embodying laws regulating the points specified in the petition—said constitution to be submitted to the Faculty for endorsement.

Preamble

Whereas, we, the students of Sweet Briar College, desire to assume individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic, and, whereas, we believe that there is dignity and honor in student government, we do hereby, in accordance with the agreement between the Faculty and Students, organize ourselves into an Association.

THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

THE HONOR SYSTEM

A high standard of personal honor prevails at Sweet Briar. Every student is expected to do her utmost to maintain this standard and at all times to consider herself an active and responsible member of the Association. The Executive Committee of the Association has the power to investigate and take action in any case involving an infraction of the Honor System and in performing this function needs the support of every student.

The Honor System applies not only to examinations but to all class work during the year and also to every phase of college life. A Sweet Briar girl's work is her bond and it is expected that every student will justify the confidence of her fellow students at all times and under all circumstances.

CONSTITUTION OF THE
STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

---

Article I—Name

The name of the Association shall be the Student Government Association of Sweet Briar College.

Article II—Purpose

The purpose of this Association shall be to foster the individual and community interests of Sweet Briar students, by maintaining the high standard of conduct and decorum, and by strengthening the spirit of unity and the sense of individual responsibility implicit in the ideal underlying the foundation of Sweet Briar College, which was "to impart to students such an education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall . . . best fit them to be useful members of society."

Article III—Fundamentals Underlying Student Government

The strength and effective operation of Student Government depends upon the truthfulness and the high sense of personal honor on the part of each student, an enlightened and vigorous student opinion, and the recognition of individual responsibility for upholding and furthering the standards and the ideas on which the Association is based. Three things are fundamental:

1. A student will tell the truth.
2. A student will respect the property of others.
3. A student will maintain absolute honesty in her academic work—preparation, classroom, tests, papers, examinations—everywhere.

Students who do not acknowledge these fundamentals or who are unwilling to exert themselves to the utmost to make those ideals prevail are out of place at Sweet Briar. Each student is in honor bound to report any infraction of these three fundamentals.

Article IV—Membership

All students at Sweet Briar College are active members of the Association and must conform to the rules and regulations of the Association for such periods as they are registered in the College. Every student on entering college is expected to sign the following pledge:

I pledge my personal honor to speak the truth at all times, to respect the property of others, and to be honest in all my dealings.

Article V—Jurisdiction

All resident students, both individually and collectively, are under the jurisdiction of the Association. Non-resident students are likewise under the jurisdiction of the Association, except in matters which naturally are under the control of their parents or guardians.

All the legislative, executive, and judicial powers recognized as essential to a self-governing organization, shall be vested in the Association, acting either as a whole or through its duly authorized officers and committees, as hereinafter provided.

The Association shall co-operate with the President of the College in the enforcement of rules concerning the general conduct of the students. (See the rules and regulations drawn up by the President of the College and the Executive Committee of the Faculty.)

The Association shall hold each student responsible for informing her guests of the rules they are expected to observe while visiting at the college.

Article VI—General Government

Section I.—Officers. The officers of the Association shall be: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, a House President for each dormitory, and Proctors for each dormitory.

Section II.—Duties of Officers.

(a) The President shall call and preside at all meetings of the Association, of the Executive Committee, of the College Council, and of the Advisory Council. She shall officially represent the students on any faculty or student committee, or on any other occasion when the students require such representation; and shall perform all the duties which naturally pertain to the office of President of a self-governing organization. As soon as convenient after registration, the President shall call a meeting of the entering students to explain the rules and regulations of the Association. At the last regular meeting in April, the President shall review the year's work and the President for the ensuing year shall assume the duties of her office.

(b) The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence of the President; shall administer the system of points, and keep a cumulative record of all offices held by each member of the Association throughout her college course; shall be in charge of the Lost and Found Department, and perform such other duties as shall from time to time be designated by the President or Executive Committee.

(c) The Secretary shall record the proceedings of all meetings of the Association, of the Executive Committee, and of the College Council, and shall keep a permanent record of the same. She shall report to the Faculty of the College for ratification all amendments to the Constitution and the By-Laws adopted by the Association; submit to the President of the College or her deputy, for her approval, lists of officers, committees, boards or other bodies appointed by the Association or its officers, and keep a permanent record of such lists; attend to all correspondence of the Association not coming directly under the jurisdiction of the Treasurer, and perform all other duties naturally pertaining to the office of Secretary of the Association.

(d) The Treasurer shall collect the dues of the Association; keep a strict account of all money of the Association, and expend the same according to the direction of the Executive Committee of the Association.

The accounts of the Association shall at all times be open to inspection by any member of the Association or by the President of the College or her deputy. The Treasurer shall make interim reports of the finances of the Association at the request of the President of the Association or of the Executive Committee, and at the last regular meeting of the year, shall render to the Association a complete report of the year's work.

College Citizenship

Good citizenship demands in addition to the observance of the fundamentals of personal honor the observance of such rules as are found necessary for the maintenance of an harmonious and student-like atmosphere, and for the protection of every student in her person and in her reputation, and for the upholding of the reputation of her college. Infringement of these rules is not in itself a breach of honor but entails punishment and repeated or wilful disregard of them entails separation from the student body. Each student is in honor bound to report herself to the proper authority for any infraction of the rules and is urged to do so without waiting for a reminder. It is also her obligation to see that misdemeanors among her fellow students are stopped, and if serious or continued, are dealt with by the proper authorities. The officers and committee members of the Association are merely our representatives for maintaining the high standards of our college life, and their service in no way relieves any student of her individual responsibility.

TAU PHI

Tau Phi is an organization composed of a limited number of upper classmen, who by their attitude and effort have shown an interest in furthering the ideals and traditions of Sweet Briar. The purpose of the society is to co-operate in other student and community activities and to promote an interest in literature, art and science.

THE CLASSICAL CLUB

The Classical Club is composed of those students who are taking or have taken in college Latin or Greek beyond the requirements for a degree, or a second year of Greek.

The Club has a small but growing collection of classical antiquities which was started by gifts from Dr. Magoffin of New York University, by Miss Newell and Dr. Robinson of Sweet Briar. Among later contributions are Greek and Roman coins of considerable value purchased by the Classical Club.

At the monthly meetings of the Club, programs of classical interest are given by the members.

THE BIOLOGY CLUB

The Biology Club aims to promote an interest in all Sciences in general and Biological Science in particular. Its membership is drawn from those sophomores showing special interest in Biology and Juniors and Seniors majoring in Science. Meetings are held several times during each semester when either the history of science or some modern research work is discussed. Each year the club offers a scholarship for a summer course in one of the Maine Biological Laboratories on the Atlantic coast, to a student showing marked proficiency and interest in Biology. An interesting project of the club is the care of Daisy Williams' garden located near Sweet Briar House.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The Sweet Briar chapter of the Alliance Francaise is composed of those students who either major in French or are especially interested in French. The membership, which is limited to forty, is drawn from the Senior, Junior and Sophomore classes. Meetings are held once each month, at which time some phase of French culture, politics, literature or art is discussed. During the year the Club presents a play in French, and also brings some well-known French authority to lecture to the college.

THE ENGLISH CLUB

All juniors and seniors who are majoring in English are eligible for membership in the English Club. The purpose of the club is to afford an opportunity to those who wish it, and have chosen this subject, for the study and enjoyment of English literature beyond the limitations of the classroom.

Because we believe that thought is enriched when it is shared, because we believe that thought is essentially social, and because we find pleasure and profit in the appreciation of literature, past and present, we have organized the English Club.

THE NEW VOTERS LEAGUE

The New Voters League in every college is a branch of the National League of Women Voters. The Sweet Briar chapter tries to follow as nearly as possible the program of the National League. This year we hope to obtain several well-known speakers who will aid us in understanding the part we should play in public affairs after graduation from college. Every girl is cordially urged to attend all meetings and to enroll herself as an active member.

THE BRAMBLER

The Brambler is the college literary magazine issued not less than five times a year by the students. Their co-operation and the voluntary contribution of short stories, informal essays, plays, poems, et cetera is requested. As a representative college magazine, The Brambler seeks to do Sweet Briar credit. In order to accomplish this, your help is solicited. Contribution boxes have been located in convenient places and it is hoped that everyone will do her part to fill them.

THE SWEET BRIAR NEWS

The SWEET BRIAR NEWS will enter its sixth year of existence in September, 1932. It is a newspaper, published on Thursday of each week throughout the year. Its aim is to give the students, faculty, alumnae, and friends of the college reports of all the news on campus which will be of interest to any or all of the above-mentioned groups.

Freshmen who have had experience on their school papers are urged to come and try out for a position on the staff. Those who have not had experience, but who are interested in the work and who are willing to learn something about it are also urged to apply. Notices to this effect will be published shortly after the opening of college in the fall, and the NEWS wants your co-operation. There will also be opportunities for girls interested in the advertising and business ends of the NEWS. Watch for your chance.

THE BRIAR PATCH

The Briar Patch, the Sweet Briar annual, is published every spring. It is in the hands of the junior class and forms an interesting part of extra-curricular activity during the junior year. Each year the staff tries to give in the pages of the Briar Patch a picture of school life during the year that will serve as a permanent record and reminder for the years when school days are over.

THE GLEE CLUB

For those who are interested in singing, the Glee Club, besides offering students instruction in group singing, provides a means of individual expression in the performance of choral music representing a wide range in moods and periods. From the Junior Glee Club organized in 1931-32 for students with little or no previous experience in choral singing, students are elected into the Senior Glee Club where more advanced work is attempted and programs are prepared for public performances.

The year, 1931-32, has been an outstandingly successful one, for a concert with Washington and Lee was given and the club also entered the contest held by the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs in Richmond. This year we hope to carry the work even further and arrange a concert with the University of Virginia, as well as with Washington and Lee.

Every member of '36 is urged to come to the try-outs held in the fall, and to give her support to the Glee Club.

THE CHOIR

A great deal of the beauty of the church services is due to the choir, and if you sing, there is a place in it for you. Trials are held during the first two weeks in the fall. Rehearsals for choir are held for an hour Thursday evening and directly before the Sunday morning service.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

Der Deutsche Verein is a social organization which endeavors to supplement class room work with studies of the German language and people. Membership is open to the students in the German department who are interested in obtaining a wider and more sympathetic understanding of German. Special emphasis is laid on the culture, history, literature, and current problems.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

Dr. McDougale was the first person who awoke Sweet Briar to the need of a study of the problems of international diplomacy. He, therefore, got in touch with Professor G. H. Blakeslee, editor of the Journal of International Relations, and received permission to start a club at Sweet Briar. This club is one of the number founded in the universities and colleges under the auspices, and with the assistance of the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace.

Since Dr. McDougale left, several members of the faculty have taken his place as faculty advisors of the club. The club is composed of girls from each class. The number of members is not limited, but it was thought wise to restrict the membership to about thirty girls. New members beginning of the semester year to test are submitted to an examination at the their general interest and knowledge of International affairs. Invitations to new members are given out at a regular meeting of the student body. Meetings are held every other Wednesday night in Reid parlor.

There are reports and discussions on topics of international interest, and every means is used to stimulate a general enthusiasm in world affairs. Debates are occasionally held, and speakers on international questions are brought to the college.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY WOMEN

The Sweet Briar Branch of the American Association of University Women, is an organization of interest to students as well as faculty at Sweet Briar College. Students upon graduation from Sweet Briar are eligible to membership in this national organization of college and university women, first organized in 1882, and since then grown to number some thirty thousand in its membership.

Those who belong to the various branches scattered over the country, are united in the common aims of promoting higher education for women and of encouraging friendship and helpfulness among educated women the world over. Most of the branches maintain study groups and unite in various forms of social and educational service in their communities.

Membership in the Association makes one a non-resident member of the National A. A. U. W. Club in Washington with the privileges of the club house and also a member of the International Federation of University Women with guest privileges at the European club houses in London, Brussels, Paris, Rome, and Florence. The A. A. U. W., through its branches and state federations, awards over $80,000 in fellowships, scholarships, and loans to graduate and undergraduate students.

The national A. A. U. W. already awards 16 fellowships to graduate women for further research and study in this country or abroad, and an endowment fund is now being raised to establish additional fellowships. Of the Sweet Briar faculty Dr. Dora Neill Raymond and Dr. Eugenie M. Morenus have held such fellowships.

Dean Emily H. Dutton is the official representative of Sweet Briar College to the American Association of University Women.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES FUND

It has been decided by the student body that a "Student Activities Fund," which covers the annual dues to the various organizations, be added to the general expenses. Not only because it is more convenient to each student to make a single payment instead of seven separate ones, but also as a means of fulfilling her obligation as a good citizen of the college, every member of the student body is strongly urged to pay her Student Activities Fund in September. This fund covers the following expenses:

Student Government Association

PRACTICAL POINTERS

Students' rooms are furnished with beds, chiffoniers, tables, bookcases, chairs, rugs, one pair of double blankets and a pillow. Each student should provide herself with her own towels, and an extra blanket and sheets. Couch covers, curtains, desk lamps, easy chairs, etc., are usually obtained from the Lynchburg stores.

No electrical appliances, except curling irons, may be used in the room. An electric iron and ironing board is installed in each hall, also one electric plate for heating water in emergency.

Regulation uniforms are used in the gymnastic drills and basket ball practice which each student is required to attend unless excused by the physician.

Bathing suits will be useful in the fall and spring. They may be purchased at the S. B. athletic store.

Horses may be engaged from the Sweet Briar stables, by telephone. Riding tickets may be purchased in Miss Dix's office.

A riding permit from a student's parent or guardian must be given to the physical director before any girl will be permitted to ride horseback.

No student will be permitted to go bathing in the lake until she has a WRITTEN PERMISSION from her guardian filed with the physical director and has passed her physical examination under Dr. Harley.

The Student Government Association of the college regulates observance of quiet hours. Absolute quiet must be maintained after 10:30 P. M.

Any student wishing to have a radio or victrola in a college dormitory must obtain permission from the Dean. Such permission will be withdrawn on violation of the rule against their use in quiet hours.

Students who are ill or indisposed may have meals sent to their rooms at a charge of twenty-five cents. Orders for meals with the cash payments for them must be placed in the boxes for that purpose in the various dormitories not later than 30 minutes before dining-room bell rings.

Food such as bread, butter, jam, and fruit may be obtained at the Refectory during the interval of an hour before to an hour after each meal. The cost of the food is nominal.

Be sure to do some work in the Young Women's Christian Association. Each member is responsible for the success of the Association work.

Attend REGULARLY and PROMPTLY your Association meetings, class meetings, and song practices.

The first class meeting of the Freshman Class is called by the Junior President, who is then President pro tem of the Freshmen until the election of their officers after six weeks.

Do not forget that you are a Freshman at Sweet Briar College and NOT an upperclassman at your preparatory school.

The Senior Study is for the use of the Seniors and their guests only.

“Good advice is beyond price.”—Consult an upperclassman about the things you do not understand. She will be glad to help you.

There is a booth for telephone service in Gray Hall and in Grammer Hall, and for telegraph service in Gray.

Special Delivery and Express lists are posted on the Gray bulletin board and the letters or packages delivered from Miss Dix's office.

When students arrive at the Sweet Briar station they will find the Sweet Briar omnibus at the south end of the station building. The charge between the station and the college is 15 cents. If you give the driver your trunk check and 50 cents he will attend to bringing up your trunk.

The House President in your dormitory will be glad to help you in any way she can.
